

C Debugging Competition – Rules & Evaluation

—

General Information

Item Details

Event Name C Debugging Competition

Total Rounds 2

Judging Basis Accuracy, number of errors fixed, output correctness

Final Result Based on combined score of Round 1 and Round 2

From 1 college only one participant allowed

—

Round 1 – Preliminary Round

CriteriaDetails

Type Objective / MCQ / Output-based questions

Number of Questions 30

Time Limit As decided by organizers

Marks per Question 1 mark

Negative Marking No

Total Marks 30

Selection Criteria Top 15 participants

—

Round 2 – Debugging Round

CriteriaDetails

Type Practical Debugging

Programming Language C

Number of Program:1

Time Limit 1 hour

Nature of Errors Syntax, Logical, Runtime

Allowed Tools Compiler and editor only (No internet / AI tools)

—

Evaluation Criteria – Round 2

Parameter Description

Error Identification Marks awarded based on number of errors fixed

Correct Output Mandatory for scoring

Code Quality Proper logic and correct implementation

Special Condition:

If no participant is able to completely debug the program within the given time, marks will be awarded based on the number of errors correctly identified and fixed.

Final Scoring & Winner Selection

CriteriaDetails

Total Score Round 1 Marks + Round 2 Marks

WinnerParticipant with highest total score

Judge's Decision Final and binding

Rules & Restrictions

Collaboration between participants is not allowed

Internet usage is strictly prohibited

Plagiarism will lead to disqualification

Any misconduct will result in immediate disqualification