

RULE BOOK

NATIONAL LEVEL IT FEST

INSPIRO 26

Stranger Sites

1. PARTICIPATION

Only one participant from each college is permitted.

2. EVENT FORMAT

This is an individual competition.

3. LANGUAGES ALLOWED

- Participants must use HTML and CSS only.
- JavaScript or any other scripting language is strictly prohibited.

4. TIME LIMIT

The total time allotted for the event is 1 hour 30 minutes.

5. PAGES LIMIT

A minimum of 3 web pages or more (including Home page).

6. RESOURCES USAGE

- Participants may use text, images, audio, and video content.
- All resources used must be relevant to the theme and properly linked.

7. FORMS

- Use of HTML forms (contact form, registration form, feedback form, etc.) is allowed.
- Forms should be HTML-based only (no scripting or backend).

8. FUNCTION KEYS / FEATURES

- Basic HTML functionalities such as navigation menus, hyperlinks, tables, lists, and buttons are allowed.
- Interactive features must be achieved using HTML and CSS only.

9. ORIGINALITY

- The design must be original and created during the competition time.
- Plagiarism will lead to disqualification.

10. INTERNET USAGE

Internet access is not allowed during the competition (unless specified by organizers).

11. SUBMISSION

All HTML, CSS, and media files must be submitted within the given time in a single folder.

12. SOFTWARE USAGE

Participants must use Geany as the web designing software for the competition.

13. EVALUATION CRITERIA

- Creativity and visual appeal
- Relevance to theme
- Page structure and navigation
- Proper use of HTML & CSS
- Overall presentation

14. JUDGES' DECISION

The decision of the judges will be final and binding.

Note

All necessary resources required for the web designing event, including text content, images, audio, video, and other supporting materials, will be provided by the organizers. Participants are required to use only the resources supplied during the event and must not use any external or personal resources.